Case No.:

Plaintiff,

Jury Trial Demanded

- against -

COMPLAINT

Filippo Milio, Carmelo Milio, Dominique Milio,
2833 Decatur Avenue LLC, Falco Realty Inc.,
Trion Real Estate Management LLC, and Trion
Holdings LLC,

Defendants.
-----X

Plaintiff Rodolfo Hoyos (“Plaintiff” or “Hoyos”), on behalf of himself and others similarly situated, by and through the undersigned attorneys, Levin-Epstein & Associates, P.C., upon personal knowledge as to himself and upon information and belief as to others, brings this complaint against Defendants Filippo Milio, Carmelo Milio, Dominique Milio (collectively, the “Individual Defendants”) 2833 Decatur Avenue LLC, Falco Realty Inc., Trion Real Estate Management LLC, and Trion Holdings LLC (collectively, the “Corporate Defendants”, and together with the Individual Defendants, the “Defendants”), and states as follows:

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. Plaintiff brings this lawsuit seeking recovery, for himself and all other similarly situated individuals, against Defendants’ violations of the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. §§ 201 et seq. (“FLSA”), and violations of Articles 6 and 19 of the New York State Labor Law (“NYLL”) and their supporting New York State Department of Labor regulations.

2. Plaintiff seeks injunctive and declaratory relief and to recover unpaid overtime wages, spread-of-hours, liquidated and statutory damages, pre- and post-judgment interest, and attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to the FLSA, NYLL, and the NYLL's Wage Theft Prevention Act ("WTPA").

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

3. The Court has subject matter jurisdiction of this case pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216 (b), 28 U.S.C. § 1331 and 28 U.S.C. § 1337, and has supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiff's claims under the NYLL pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a).

4. This Court has federal question jurisdiction over Plaintiff's claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331 because his claims arise under the FLSA.

5. Venue is proper in the Southern District of New York under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) and (c), because all events relevant to this action occurred in this District, and the acts and omissions giving rise to the claims herein alleged took place in this District.

- over them as closed corporations or closely controlled entities;
- f. intermingling assets and debts of their own with the Corporate Defendants;
- g. diminishing and/or transferring assets of the Corporate Defendants to protect their own interests; and
- h. other actions evincing a failure to adhere to the corporate form.

57. At all relevant times, Defendants were Plaintiff's employers within the meaning of the FLSA and NYLL.

58. Defendants had the power to hire and fire Plaintiff, control the terms and conditions of employment, and determine the rate and method of any compensation in exchange for Plaintiff's services.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

59. Plaintiff and other similarly situated individuals are individuals who have worked for Defendants in similarly-titled, hourly paid position, during the statutory period.

60. Plaintiff and other similarly situated individuals all shared similar job titles, training, job descriptions and job tasks, during the statutory period.

61. Plaintiff was an employee of Defendants.

62. Plaintiff was employed as a superintendent at the Decatur Ave. Property, from on or around March 2018 through and including December 15, 2021.

63. Plaintiff's responsibilities as a superintendent included, inter alia: collecting garbage and recycling, hauling refuse bins to and from the curb, sweeping the sidewalk, cleaning the buildings' hallways and common areas, changing lightbulbs, maintaining the buildings' appearance, communicating with tenants regarding repairs, painting, plumbing, purchasing supplies, repairing bathroom faucets and fixtures, repairing kitchen faucets and fixtures, repairing appliances, communicating with contractors and other building employees, shoveling snow, and generally serving as the first point of contact for resident service requests.

64. Plaintiff regularly handled goods in interstate commerce, such as cleaning supplies, and garbage bags which were necessary to perform his duties as a superintendent.

65. Plaintiff's work duties required neither discretion nor independent judgment.

66. Plaintiff was required to be on call at or near the Decatur Ave. Property, twenty-four (24) hours a day, seven (7) days per week, including holidays, to address reoccurring emergent issues, such as lost keys, locked doors, electrical shortages, clogged toilets, leaks, and other issues that either the Defendants or tenants of the Decatur Ave. Property would demand that Plaintiff address.

67. From approximately March 2018 through and including December 15, 2021, Plaintiff worked twenty-four (24) hours a day, seven (7) days per week, including holidays.

68. From approximately March 2018 through and including December 15, 2021, Defendants paid Plaintiff a fixed salary of $485 every week.

69. Plaintiff was required to work in excess of forty (40) hours per week, but never received an overtime premium of one and one-half times his regular rate of pay for those hours.

70. Plaintiff's wages did not vary regardless of how many additional hours Plaintiff worked in a week.

71. At all relevant times, Defendants did not compensate Plaintiff for one hour's pay at the basic minimum hourly wage rate for each day Plaintiff's shift exceeded ten (10) hours.

72. Defendants never granted Plaintiff with meal breaks or rest periods of any length.

73. Plaintiff was not required to keep track of Plaintiff's time, nor to Plaintiff's knowledge, did the Defendants utilize any time tracking device, such as sign in sheets or punch cards, that accurately reflected Plaintiff's actual hours worked.

74. No notification, either in the form of posted notices, or other means, was ever given to Plaintiff regarding wages are required under the FLSA or NYLL.

75. Defendants did not provide Plaintiff a statement of wages, as required by NYLL 195(3).

76. Defendants did not give any notice to Plaintiff, in Spanish (Plaintiff's primary language), of Plaintiff's rate of pay, employer's regular pay day, and such other information as required by NYLL § 195(1).

77. At all relevant times, Defendants did not pay Plaintiff at the rate of one and one-half times their hourly wage rate for hours worked in excess of forty per workweek.

FLSA COLLECTIVE ACTION ALLEGATIONS

78. Plaintiff brings the First and Second Claims for Relief as a collective action pursuant to FLSA §16(b), 29 U.S.C. §216(b), on behalf of all non-exempt persons (including but not limited to superintendents) employed by Defendants on or after the date that is three years before filing of the Complaint in this case, as defined herein ("FLSA Collective Plaintiffs").

79. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and FLSA Collective Plaintiffs are and have been similarly situated, have had substantially similar job requirements and pay provisions, and are and have been subject to Defendants' decision, policy, plan and common policies, programs, practices, procedures, protocols, routines and rules willfully failing and refusing to pay them at the legally required overtime wage for all hours worked in excess of forty hours per work week. These claims of the Plaintiff are essentially the same as those of the FLSA Collective Plaintiffs.

80. The First and Second Claims for Relief are properly brought under and maintained as an opt-in collective action pursuant to under FLSA §16(b), 29 U.S.C. §216(b). The FLSA

Collective Plaintiffs are readily ascertainable. For purpose of notice and others related to this action, their names and addresses are readily available from the Defendants. Notice can be provided to the FLSA Collective Plaintiffs via first class mail to the last address known to Defendants

81. Plaintiff reserves the right to re-define the FLSA Collective Plaintiffs prior to notice or collective certification, and thereafter, as necessary.

(FLSA – Unpaid Minimum Wages, 29 U.S.C. § 201 et seq.)

82. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates all foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

83. Defendants willfully and intentionally failed to compensate the Plaintiff with the applicable minimum hourly wage in violation of the FLSA, 29 U.S. Code § 206.

84. Defendants have failed to make a good faith effort to comply with the FLSA with respect to compensation of Plaintiff.

85. Due to Defendants' violations of the FLSA, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and FLSA Collective Plaintiffs, is entitled to recover from Defendants, jointly and severally, their unpaid minimum wages and an equal amount in the form of liquidated damages, as well as reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of the action, pursuant to the FLSA, all in an amount to be determined at trial. 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

SECOND CLAIM
(FLSA – Unpaid Overtime Wages, 29 U.S.C. §§ 201 et seq.)

86. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates all foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

87. At all relevant times to this action, Plaintiff has been a covered, non-exempt employee within the meaning of the FLSA.

88. Defendants were required to pay Plaintiff one and one-half (1 1/2) times the regular rate at which Plaintiff was employed for all hours worked in excess of forty hours in a workweek pursuant to the overtime wage provisions set forth in the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 207, et seq.

89. Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff the overtime wages to which they are entitled under the FLSA.

90. Defendants willfully violated the FLSA by knowingly and intentionally failing to pay Plaintiff overtime wages.

91. Due to Defendants' willful violations of the FLSA, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and FLSA Collective Plaintiffs, are entitled to recover their unpaid overtime wages, liquidated damages, reasonable attorney's fees and cost of the action and pre-judgment and post-judgment interest.

THIRD CLAIM
(NYLL – Unpaid Minimum Wages, N.Y. Stat. § 650 et seq.)

92. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates all foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

93. Defendants willfully and intentionally failed to compensate the Plaintiff with the applicable minimum hourly wage in violation of the NYLL §650 et seq.

94. Defendants have failed to make a good faith effort to comply with the NYLL with respect to compensation of Plaintiff.

95. Due to Defendants' violations of the NYLL, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and FLSA Collective Plaintiffs, is entitled to recover from Defendants, jointly and severally, their unpaid minimum wages and an equal amount in the form of liquidated damages, as well as reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of the action, in an amount to be determined at trial, pursuant to the NYLL § 663.

FOURTH CLAIM
(NYLL – Unpaid Overtime Wages)

96. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates all foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

97. Plaintiff is a covered, non-exempt employee within the meaning of the NYLL and supporting New York Department of Labor (“NYDOL”) Regulations.

98. Under the NYLL and supporting NYDOL Regulations, Defendants are required to pay Plaintiff one and one half times the regular rate of pay, which shall not be less than the minimum wage, for all hours they worked in excess of forty.

99. Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff the overtime wages to which they are entitled under the NYLL.

100. Defendants willfully violated the NYLL by knowingly and intentionally failing to pay Plaintiff overtime wages.

101. Due to Defendants’ willful violations of the NYLL, Plaintiff is entitled to recover their unpaid overtime wages, liquidated damages, reasonable attorney’s fees and cost of the action and pre-judgment and post-judgment interest.

FIFTH CLAIM
(NYLL – Spread-of-Hours Pay)

102. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates all foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

103. Defendants willfully failed to pay Plaintiff additional compensation of one hour’s pay at the basic minimum hourly wage rate for each day during which the Plaintiff’s shifts spread over more than ten (10) hours.

104. By Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff spread-of-hours pay, Defendants willfully violated §650 et seq. of the NYLL and violated the supporting NYDOL regulations, including, but not limited to, 12 N.Y. C.R.R. §146-1.6.

105. Due to Defendants' willful violations of the NYLL, Plaintiff is entitled to recover an amount prescribed by statute, liquidated damages, reasonable attorney's fees and cost of the action and pre-judgment and post-judgment interest.

SIXTH CLAIM
(NYLL WTPA– Failure to Provide Wage Notices)

106. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates all foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

107. The NYLL and the WTPA require employers to provide all employees with a written notice of wage rates at the time of hire.

108. In violation of NYLL §195 (1), Defendants failed to furnish to Plaintiff at the time of hiring, or whenever their rate(s) of pay changed, with a wage notice containing the rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other, allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage, including tip, meal, or lodging allowances; the regular pay day designated by the employer in accordance with NYLL §191; the name of the employer; any "doing business as" names used by the employer; the physical address of the employer's main office or principal place of business, and a mailing address, if different; the telephone number of the employer, and anything otherwise required by law.

109. Due to Defendants' violations of NYLL §195 (1), Plaintiff is entitled to recover their liquidated damages, reasonable attorney's fees and cost and disbursement of the action, pursuant to the NYLL §198 (1-b).

SEVENTH CLAIM
(Violation of the Wage Statement Provisions of the NYLL)

110. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates all foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

111. With each payment of wages, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff with a statement listing each of the following the dates of work covered by the payment of wages; name of employee; name of employer; address and phone number of employer; rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; gross wages; deductions; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage; the number of regular hours worked; the number of overtime hours worked, as required by the NYLL § 195(3).

112. As a result of Defendant's violation of the WTPA, Plaintiff is entitled to damages of at least $150 per week during which the violations occurred.

EIGHTH CLAIM
(Failure to Pay Timely Wages)

113. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates all foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

114. NYLL § 191(1)(a) prohibits employers from paying manual workers at no less than on a weekly basis.

115. As described above, throughout their employment with Defendants, Plaintiff was underpaid their wages each week.

116. As a result of Defendants' violation of NYLL § 191(1)(a), Plaintiff is entitled to recover their liquidated damages, reasonable attorney's fees and cost and disbursement of the action, pursuant to the NYLL §198 (1-a).

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, the Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and FLSA Collective Plaintiffs, respectfully requests that this Court enter a judgment:

- a. authorizing Plaintiff at the earliest possible time to give notice of this collective action, or that the Court issue such notice, to all persons who are presently, or have up through the extent allowable under the statute of limitations and including the date of issuance of court-supervised notice, been employed by Defendants as nonexempt employees. Such notice shall inform them that the civil notice has been filed, of the nature of the action, of their right to join this lawsuit if they believe they were denied minimum wages and premium overtime wages;
- b. certification of this case as a collective action pursuant to the FLSA;
- c. issuance of notice pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), to all similarly situated members of the FLSA opt-in class, apprising them of the pendency of this action, and permitting them to assert timely FLSA claims and state claims in this action by filing individual Consent to Sue forms pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), and appointing Plaintiff and their counsel to represent the FLSA Collective Plaintiffs;
- d. declaring that Defendants violated the minimum wage provisions of the FLSA, the NYLL and the NYDOL regulations;
- e. declaring that Defendants violated the overtime wage provisions of the FLSA, the NYLL and the NYDOL regulations;
- f. declaring that Defendants violated the spread-of-hours pay provisions of the NYLL and NYDOL Regulations;
- g. declaring that Defendants violated the notice statement pay provisions of the NYLL and WTPA;
- h. awarding Plaintiff unpaid minimum wages;
- i. awarding Plaintiff unpaid overtime wages;
- j. awarding Plaintiff unpaid spread-of-hours pay;
- k. awarding unpaid wages under New York State law for failure to pay timely wages;
- l. awarding Plaintiff liquidated damages in an amount equal to the total amount of wages found to be due;
- m. awarding unpaid wages under the NYLL and the New York State contract law;
- n. awarding Plaintiff statutory damages as a result of Defendants' failure to furnish accurate wage notice pursuant to the NYLL;

- o. awarding Plaintiff pre- and post-judgment interest under the NYLL;
- p. awarding Plaintiff reasonable attorneys' fees and the costs and disbursements of this action; and
- q. Such other relief as this Court deems just and proper.
